Greetings to my Masonic Brethren and Family

Let's start with February 3rd our Stated meeting. The Lodge was opened on the EAM degree followed by draping of the Altar for WB Jim Dorman I and celebrated his Masonic life. A proficiency then was given by a Brother EAM which led us into a Fellowcraft degree on February 10th. A motion was then made and 2nd to buy a table for 8 at the crab feed at the Shrine Temple in Wilsonville. The meeting was closed on the EA degree and then we headed for Brother Frank Drew's potato bar (not your average potato bar). All the fixin's plus chili. My contributions were making regular and decaf coffee. Good time had by all.

Our Cub Scout Pack is having a food drive this month. Not just canned food but anything that is not perishable is accepted. Freeze dried taters is one of my favorites, just add to boiling water and "presto"...mashed potatoes! The instructions from the Pack is to bring these items to our stated in Mardh but you can drop them off at the lodge anytime. If you don't have a key (you should have) I will meet you there. The Pack thanks you for your support. What I didn't mention in the February Trestleboard was the Pack had thier yearly Pine Wood Derby in January. Another great time by all. William Sturgill had his Eagle Scout court on February 8th was attended by a full house with awards and dinner.

The date of our work party at the lodge has been changed to Saturday February 28th at 10am. Coffee and donuts at 9:30am.

As promised in the February Trestleboard, the date for our Masonic Famly dinner will be April 12th at 2pm. The cost will be $10 per person and will be catered in our banquet room.

Masonic tradition informs us that before every stated there will be a dinner at 6pm. The dinner for the March stated will be pizza. The District Deputy will be joining us for dinner and then upstairs for his official visit.

Yours very truly and fraternally,
WM Jim Evans

Greetings Companions,

I am writing this prior to the conferral of the Most Excellent Master degree which will be on Tuesday, February 17th. I don't have a firm date on the Royal Arch degree yet but it should be soon.

If I remember correctly, Grand Chapter will be on Thursday, April 2nd at the Monarch Hotel in Clackamas. All Royal Arch Masons may attend.

Fraternally,
Larry Keyes, EHP
