May 5 6:00pm Dinner
7:00pm Stated Meeting

Greeting Masonic Brothers and Family.

April started with the sad news of the passing of a good friend and Brother. The Altar was draped for Brother Mike Marshall, he will be missed. If that name sounds familiar his wife Susie was the Mother Advisor for Rainbow at Holbrook for many years.

The Sunday after our Stated was the experimental Masonic Family Dinner. It was a success for all who attended. Most of us are still eating leftover ham, chicken and mashed potatoes.

The Cub Scouts had an open house night on Wednesday April 15th with a lot of fun stuff to do for the Scouts.

Coming up for Blue Lodge on April 27th at 7pm is a MM degree for Brother Fellowcraft Nathan Hughes.

At 6pm on Tuesday May 5th our dinner will be tacos and all the fixin's. It will be hosted by Brother Bob Landaur and his wife Val. Our Stated will start at the usual time of 7pm.

Many thanks to the Brothers who attend Lodge and keep our Lodge healthy and active.

Yours very truly and Fraternaly,
WM Jim Evans

Greetings Companions,

Greetings Companions,

Welcome to our three new companions who have been appointed Masters of the Veils and thanks to our degree team for helping them through the rough and rugged road to our tabernacle. Let's continue working on our proficiency in the full-form opening ceremony.

Fraternally,
Larry Keyes, EHP
